Directions: This fairy tale contains blank spaces where words were left out. To complete the story, the READER does not tell anyone what the story is about. Instead, they ask the WRITER to give them words to fill in the blank spaces.

The READER asks the WRITER to call out a word to fit the category. The READER will fill in the blanks with the words the WRITER says. The result is a silly story that will probably not make much sense, but it should give you a good laugh! Be sure to draw a picture of the characters, setting, and plot on each page of the story. Have fun!
