Dear Parents,

The children voted today, and the winner was....an ARTS AND CRAFTS BASKET! I think most will find this easy and fun to shop for. (And please know- this is optional. If you wish to contribute, that's great!)

I will buy the basket when I see how big a basket we need. I'll also get the plastic wrap and a big bow. As for the ideas to fill it, I think they can be found easily at WalMart, Target, dollar stores, and A.C. Moore (at McKinley Plaza). The children brainstormed what could be put in it, and they came up with all of these ideas: (Please, new, not used things)

Acrylic paints	Face paint	Beads (plastic, wood)
Paint brushes	Foam shapes (cut-outs)	Popsicle sticks
Glitter	Scissors	Project kids
Feathers	Pipe cleaners	Glitter glue
Felt squares	Rubber stamps	Stickers
Sketch paper	Googly eyes	Sequins
Glue	Boondoggle	"Gems"
Water colors	Jingle bells	Magnetic tape
Crayons	Velcro	Craft glue
Paint-by-Number sets	Shells	other ideas?
Wood pieces (to paint)	Markers
"Stained glass" kits	Pom Poms

Wow! That's a lot of ideas, and you may think of more!

Thank you for your help with this project and raising money for the playground!
