

Name _____

Lesson 2: Rumpelstiltskin ELA Listening & Learning boasting gold promise claim Rumpelstiltskin

Once upon a time there was a miller who was _____ about how clever his daughter was.

He even told the king that she could spin straw into _____. The king put the miller's daughter into a room with straw and spindle, and was told to spin the straw into gold or else! The miller's daughter didn't really know how to make straw into gold so she sat and cried. Suddenly a little man appeared and offered to spin the straw into gold. He did this each night and she paid him with a ring, necklace, and even her first child if she were to become queen one day. When she became queen, the miller's daughter forgot about her _____ until he came to _____ her baby. To keep her baby, she had to guess his name. With help, she found out the little man's name was

_____.

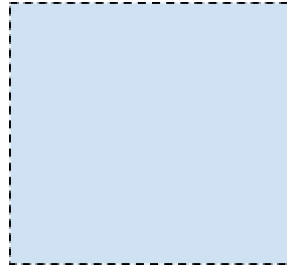

When she told the little man his name he disappeared into the ground and she never saw him again living happily ever after.

Core Vocabulary

boasting- bragging claim- to say that something belongs to you clever- Smart and quick thinking pity- to feel badly for someone or something succeed- to achieve or win

Lesson 2

boasting

claim

clever

pity

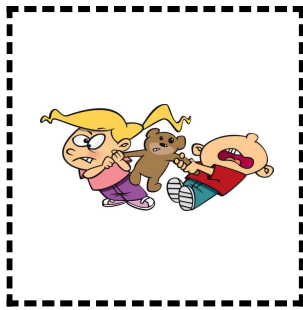

succeed

Lesson 2

boasting

claim

clever

pity

succeed